

Baptist Men to Attend Seminar in San Pedro

The Men's Fellowship of the South Bay Baptist church, 4565 Sharynne lane, Seaside Ranchos, will attend the Conservative Baptist Association Men's seminar in San Pedro on March 30 from 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Registration and luncheon reservations deadline is Sunday following the evening worship hour. B. T. Lamb is in charge of the local arrangements.

The third in a series of messages on what the Bible teaches about the tongue will be presented at duplicate services at 9:45 and 11 a.m. when Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor, continues with "The Seven Sins of The Tongue."

At the 7:30 p.m. worship hour the pastor will discuss "The Signs of His Coming." A modern crib-nursery is provided at all regular services of the church. Following the evening service the film, "One Wonderful Week" will be shown for those interested in having their children attend a Christian summer camp.

Youth Groups and the Pastor's Class on Church Membership meet at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday evening.

Consult this paper's church directory for the Sunday School schedule.

The Conservative Baptist association skating party this month will be held in Gardena on Monday, March 25. All young people of the local church are invited. Those planning to attend are asked to contact the Youth Director following the Baptist Youth Fellowship meet-

Science Program On Radio Sunday

"Practical Benefits from Trusting God" will be the subject of a Christian Science program to be given on Columbia's Church of the Air over KNX on Sunday, March 24, at 7:30 a.m. The speaker will be Maurice W. Hastie, of New York City.

Christian Science Topic Announced

Accepting and utilizing man's God-given dominion, material laws of sickness, sin, and limitation are destroyed. This challenging fact will be brought out Sunday, March 24, at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th st. and Manuel.

ing Sunday. Bible Study and Prayer meetings are held every Wednesday evening in the Chapel at 7:30 p.m.

Lutheran Communicants Received

Another group of communicant members and their children were received at Ascension Lutheran church, N. Torrance, last Sunday in a public ceremony during the morning service.

Those received by confession of faith or transfer were: Mrs. Stanley F. King, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Sorenson, Mrs. Willis Flangen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonstrom and Patricia, G. T. Elkorn, Mrs. Jennie Klingner and Allen, Mrs. B. M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brenneisen, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mueller.

On Sunday evening, March 24, the Sunday school staff will sponsor a Family Night gathering in honor of the new members. This fellowship hour will be from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Members and friends of the congregation are invited.

'My Problem Is Different' Sunday Topic

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science at Ruby st. and Catalina ave., Redondo Beach, announced that his subject for this coming Sunday, March 24, will be "But My Problem Is Different!"

Sunday services of the church and the Metateens will be held concurrently at 11 a.m. The children's church services will begin seven minutes before 11 a.m. A nursery for the infants and the younger children is provided and is under the supervision of a registered nurse.

A 15-minute meditation period precedes the church services with organ music by the church organist, Jean Rhodes.

Inspiration hour services are at 1 p.m. on Wednesday. Rev. Elsie Boyd, assistant minister of the Long Beach Church of Religious Science, will be the guest speaker. Her subject will be: "The Lighted Path."

The public is invited to all church activities.

New Educational Unit

Lutheran Educational Unit Started

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new education building were held at First Lutheran church, Carson and Flower, Sunday, March 17, at 3 p.m.

The first part of the service took place in the church where messages were brought by John Ewald, congregation chairman; Milton Carlson, building committee chairman; Orville Sletten, Sunday school superintendent; Pete Durst, chairman of parish education board; Stanley LeBon, chairman of the building fund trustees; and Donald Johnson, student intern.

Following the service in the church, the congregation went to the plot of ground south of the church for the ground breaking service. Pastor Paul Wenske, leaders of the church, and the building committee members, consisting of Milton Carlson, chairman, John Schwartz, Robert Wilson, William Edstrom, Mrs. Charles Mearing and Mrs. Stuart Phillips participated. The ceremonies were closed by the singing of a hymn by the children of the Sunday school.

The new education building will be used for Sunday school, organization meetings in the evenings, and as a Christian elementary school during the week.

Elert-Vog is the contractor and Edward E. Davies is the architect.

Following the meeting, coffee was served by the hostess for March, Mmes. John Murray, Lillian Klotz, George Shelton and Gerald Loew.

Evangelist at Church of God

Rev. Robert Graham, youth evangelist, will preach under the auspices of the Holy Spirit and Mrs. Graham will sing in each service beginning at 7 p.m., Monday, March 25, at 8 p.m. from Thirty-second Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles.

Science Radiocast

"Christian Science: Its Promise and Its Practice" will be the subject of a lecture to be radiocast over Station KFWE (980 kc), Monday, March 25, at 8 p.m. from Thirty-second Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles.
